

YO! London image consent and release form

Project overview

The YO! London project will showcase young people's photography skills at the Octavia Foundation's 10th Anniversary celebration at Tate Britain on Thursday 19th May 2016. Selected images will be available for a private view in the Duffield Room and submitted images will be stored and placed within an online gallery that will be on public view. Young photographers who have their images selected will be invited to attend the celebration evening

Photography

In submitting the photograph, you consent for the Octavia Foundation to use the image at the exhibit and online gallery. Selected images may also be used for promotion in social media posts, on platforms such as Twitter and Instagram. If Twitter/Instagram usernames or handles are provided, the Octavia foundation will tag the photographer in the post.

If the subject of your photograph is below 18, then their parental/guardian consent will be required for the image to be used. Therefore, the Octavia Foundation request that the form below is signed by the parent/guardian and returned to the Octavia Foundation.

The Octavia Foundation ask for your email address to ensure that if photograph(s) are used, the photographer and image subject will be informed.

Permission

I consent to have the photograph taken to be used in the Octavia Foundation's exhibit at the Tate, online gallery and for potential marketing purposes.
